

A web cookie is a small piece of data that is sent from our website and stored on your browser or the hard drive of your computer.

Information about our use of cookies

We only use analytical cookies which enable us to analyse the number of visitors to our website and to see how our website users navigate around our website. This helps us to improve the way our website works, for example, by ensuring that you can find what you are looking for easily.

If you want to know more about the cookies that we use, you can read the information in the table below:

Cookie	Name	Purpose	More Information
Google Analytics	_utma _utmb _utmc _utmz	These cookies are used to collect information about how visitors use our site. We use the information to compile reports and to help us to improve the site. The cookies collect information in an anonymous form, including the number of visitors to the site, where visitors have come to the site from and the pages they visited.	See the Google website for more information on privacy and security: https://support.google.com/analytics/answer/600245

Please note that our advertisers and third party web traffic analytic sites may also use cookies, over which we have no control.

You are able to block our cookies by activating the setting on your browser that allows you to block cookies. If you do block our cookies, however, you may not be able to access all or parts of our website.

To find out more about cookies, including how to see what cookies have been set and how to manage and delete them, visit www.allaboutcookies.org.

By using our website, you consent to our use of cookies as described above.
