

Shading, Watermarking and Pile Reversal

All pile carpets are subject to shading or pile reversal, which in certain circumstances may be permanent. That is the pile in parts of the carpet may become set in a particular direction for no specific reason, giving the appearances of areas of light and shade. This is not a manufacturing defect and we cannot accept liability in respect of it.

